

Early Voting information

Voters who wish to cast their ballots will be able to choose from multiple sites and dates. The primary one-stop early voting location is the main office of the Forsyth County Board of Elections, in the county government center in downtown Winston-Salem at 201 N. Chestnut St.

Voters can make their choice weekdays from Oct. 16 until Nov. 1, with two special weekend days for voting, Sunday, Oct. 26 and Saturday, Nov. 1.

There also are 13 satellite locations throughout the county open for early voting.

These voting sites will be open Monday through Friday from Oct. 20 to 31 and one Saturday, Nov. 1:

- Carver School Road Library, 4915 Lansing Drive.
- Clemmons Library, 3554 Clemmons Road, Clemmons.
- Kernersville Library, 130 E. Mountain St., Kernersville.

These voting sites will be open Oct. 27 to 31 and on Nov. 1:

- Brown and Douglas Recreation Center, 4725 Indiana Ave.
- Harper Hill Shopping Center, 150 Grant Hill Lane.
- Lewisville Library, 6490 Shallowford Road, Lewisville.
- Malloy Jordan Heritage Center, 1110 E. Seventh St.
- Polo Park Recreation Center, 1850 Polo Road.
- Rural Hall Library, 7125 Broad St., Rural Hall.
- Sedge Garden Recreation Center, 401 Robbins Road.
- Southside Library, 3185 Buchanan St.
- Walkertown Library, 2969 Main St., Walkertown.
- Anderson Center, WSSU, 800 Price St.

Additional information about voting, including opening and closing times, can be accessed through the election board's Web site, www.co.forsyth.nc.us/elections , or by calling 336-703-2800.